These fishes are pretty slimy and live both in salt and fresh water. The salt water variety, because of the obvious presence of salt in the water, has a tougher skin and flesh. An Eel in the Aquarium - Short Kid Stories But, the most surprising, was the way my eel friend would act when it heard my voice. It is hard to imagine how a fish "whether it is an eel or any other type of fish" can recognize a familiar voice and pop its head out of the water as if to say hello. Well, this is exactly what my naughty eel would do.
